TUESDAY MORNING:JULY 11, 1878. NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT:

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

Persons leaving the city during the summer months, and wishing to be informed of enatters transpiring at the city of Washington, can have the DAILY NATIONAL RE-PUBLICAN mailed to their address, free of postage, at the following rates, payable in GOVERNOR HAYES declares for h in advance only a single term of the Presidency. His reason for this is sound, and will commend itself to the approval of all good catizens. He would keep an "eye single" to the duties of the present hour. He will not suffer his attention to be distracted from his duties to the people by any effort to secure a re-election. What fault can Democrats find with this position?

NOTHING could be more happy than the emphatic declaration of Governor Hayes in favor of securing for all time the anti-sectarian character of our public schools by constitutional amendment. This doctrine will meet with a ringing response from all sections of the country. Prompt attention to this question in the manner proposed will save the country from angry sectarian contests in the future. All denominations of Christians will acknowledge the fairness of the proposition and aid in its success.

THE financial situation and its remedy are filly characterized by the Republican candidate in sentences so brief and language so clear that no one can fail to comprehend their meaning. He is for a prompt compliance with all national promises in accordance with their letter and spirit. He thinks a Government due-bill or greenback, being the promise of all the people collectively to pay the amount named on its face. should be redeemed just as promptly as if it were given by a private individual. The failure to so redeem the promises of the nation in coin or its equivalent is the synonym of national dishonor. This means that the labor of the country should be paid in dollars worth one hundred cents each, instead of those which will realize only eighty five or eighty-six cents.

THE CLEAR and concise expression of his views by Governor Haves, in his letter of acceptance, upon civil service reform excites the indignation of the Democratic press, because it is a fatal blow to that cardinal Democratic principle announced by Jackson, "To the victors belong the spoils." The Governor plants himself squarely upon the platform advocated by this journal for years past, that the Constitution never contemplated the distribution of official patronage by the representatives of the people. It is absurd to suppose that the framers of that instrument designed that the legislators who created the offices should also have the power to mittem with their friends. On the contrary, they were at the especial pains to provide that such appointments should be made by the Executive. If Governor Hayes is elected he will succeed in breaking up this great evil, which has grown up among us'since the time of Jackson, until the custom has almost the force of law. which permits Congressmen of the dominant party to dictate the disposal of the official patronage of their States and districts. Let him do this, and restore the Executive office to the full exercise of its true prerogatives in this respect, and he will receive, as he will also deserve, the plaudits of the people. The Democratic politicians will hate him, of course, but from them he can expect nothing better.

THE South most needs that peace which is begotten of supremacy of law. It must be that supremacy of law which protects the person, the property, the life, the rights, immunities and privileges of the humblest of her citizens as well as those of her hereditary landholders. It must be such supremacy of law as will guarantee to the humblest laborer, even though his skin be of ebony darkness, the proper remuneration for his labor when performed. Governor Hayes well says in his letter of acceptance that "all parts of the Constitution "are sacred, and must be sacredly observed, "the parts that are new no less than the "parts that are old." All the people must recognize in good faith the rights of all. The South cries for skilled and intelligent labor, yet it refuses to educate and protect and remunerate the labor it now has. This course repels rather than attracts labor from abroad of a higher class. Intelligent and skilled labor knows to what it owes its superiority, and it will not countenance by its presence a country or a section which contemns and oppresses labor of an inferior character. Land proprietors in the South will never find their property in demand or valuable in production until they change their tactics in regard to their treatment of labor. Without labor their lands will not bear taxation, while with it, properly cherished and protected, they will bear the taxes necessary for all the requirements of government, including the education of their labor. It is the labor of all countries which bears the taxation. Governor Haves understands the labor problem thoroughly. He fully comprehends its relation to taxation and to education. Let the South heed his advice.

DISTRICT CLAIMS.

One of the highest obligations of Gov ernment is to its citizens. This is most particularly so in our Government, where the people are the source of all power. This being so, it is the duty of the Government to provide that every man shall be protected in his rights. Life, liberty and property are among the recognized rights of the people. It is incumbent upon the Government to protect every citizen in each and all of these rights. The people who reside in the Di-trict of Columbia are directly under the charge of the Congress of the United States, and on that body rests the responsibility of their protection. It is an undisputed fact that many of the

of their just rights of property, and Congress should remedy the evil. Those we allude to are the contractors, sub-contractors and laborers who have done so much to improve and beautify the city and who are yet unpaid because their ac counts are unadjusted. The House of Representatives has passed a bill entitled "an act providing "the adjustment of claims against the District of Columbia, and for other pur-'poses," and this bill has been referred to the Senste Committee on the District. So far it has not been reported to the Senate. On Saturday a memorial was presented to the Senate by Senator Merrimon asking for the passage of that act. It provides for the appointment of three commis sioners to adjust these claims and report them to the next Congress. We do not approve of the manner of appointing the commissioners provided for in the bill, but by amending it so that the President ap points the commissioners it would be right The Senate Committee on the District should report the bill so amended without delay, and pass it through the Senate. The Democrats cannot object, because they claim to be the friends of the laboring men, and hundreds of laboring men are interested in the passage of this act. The bill is now in charge of a Democrat, Sena tor Merrimon, of North Carolina, and it rests with him to smother it or to bring it before the committee, and thus secure its passage. We will see what his action is.

REFORM: REFORM !! REFORM !!!

The great exemplar of reform now in the land is Samuel J. Tilden, and his apostle is any humbug that can be caught with the term in his mouth, great is Tilden ! great is Reform ! But the greater than these is the school and the masters from which this modern reformer learned his arts in that line. The teachers of the precious lesson of reform which this man Tilden proposes to inculcate throughou the United States were William M. Tweed, Andrew J. Garvey, Tom Field, R. B. Connelly and a host of others of that kidney, in the city of New York, who have "left their country for their country's good." A more graceless set never encumbered the earth, and a more fitting apostle they could not have than the canting hypocrite whom the Democrats have selected as their national standard bearer. A man is said to be known by the company he keeps, and the political associates of Samuel J. Tilden can be counted among those who robbed the city of New York of millions, debauched the elective franchise without stint, and then fled to escape the wrath to come.

"Birds of a feather," &c., is not a bad maxim; and does any one suppose that Tilden at heart is any purer or better than those who stole in his city and run away! This may be a hard thing to say of a man so distinguished by a party, but it is logical and justifiable. After cahooting with the New York thieves until they had scattered, Tilden undertook to make some cheap capital by opening a crusade upon the "canal thieves," as he called the canal contractors in his State. Most of these were of his own political party, but, unlike the New York ring, they were not much "on the divide," and hence were fit objects of persecution. We have no more respect for the plunderers who would not divide than we have for the man who pursued them on account of their covetousness, and is now endeavoring to build himself up at the expense of their reputations. We regard them as all of a piece, and should the nation be so unfortunate as to place this modern leader in reform at the head of the Government, the flood-gates of corruption, fraud and embezzlement would be opened with tenfold volume, and a brighter era of plunder would open, exceeding and expanding wider than any before known in the history of this country. Every Democratic reformer in the House would crowd to the front for fat places or the enormities perpetrated under Buchanan, the last of a long line of Democratic reformers, would sink into insignificance. It will be a sad day for this Republic when ex-rebels, respited traitors, the hungry plunderers of a party that has long sighed for a return to the flesh-pots of po litical emoluments, and all the enemies of the Union and Constitution are made welcome to the Departments of Government and the avenues of spoils. The lessons taught by their fathers in this line would be improved upon until, at the end of four years, this country would have no more army, no more navy and no more treasure than when the Democratic party last left the Government under Buchanan.

jobs. Every ex-Confederate who is brooding over his sacrifices in the "lost cause" would seek indemnification therefor in office or contracts that might prove remunerative. A younger brood of reformers,

Tilden & Co., would seek the avenues of plunder in the nation under Tilden until

SOUTH CAROLINA RACE WAR. In a day or two more we shall hear the truth in regard to "the negro riot" at Hamburg. We can tell the story now as well as if we had been present and saw the whole affair. A company of colored militia were parading in the little town of Hamburg. Two white men attempted to pass through the ranks, and were not permitted to do so. They cursed "the d-d niggers" and went for their friends. These armed themselves and without authority of aw took the captain of the company before s justice of the peace. The colored company released him without noise or confusion, and then the whites shouted: "Kill 'the d-d niggers! They are getting up "a riot." Runners were sent out and arge numbers of men collected, when the colored militia retreated into a house for protection. From this they were driven by the use of a piece of artillery, and quite number were killed-shot down while endeavoring to escape from the ruthless Ku-Klux murderers. We do not know how many were killed, for the six reported by the agent of the Associated Press were only those killed on the main streets of the town; those shot down in the back alleys in their humble cabins or in the woods and fields are never counted by these press agents or by the flends who murder them. But they are reckoned up by others. Their blood cries from the earth to the great God of Heaven for vengeance. He notes them all. It also calls to the loyal people of the North. It appeals to them to protect those of their race who are not yet murdered from the assassin's bullet. The loyal people of the North will count all who fall. From a letter in another column it will be seen that the preliminary work has commenced in South Carolina for a campaign such as placed Lamar in the Senate from Mississippi. The Hamburg massacre was probably intended to assist in intimidating

Le colored men of South Carolina.

EDITORIAL POSTSCRIPT. Of the fifteen elected Presidents not one of them was an inhabitant of any of our large cities at the time of his nomination. Tilden is a resident of the Empire city of the land, and as the above rule has no exceptions his paid puffs and sham demonstrations respecting reform will avail him nothing.

The great sale which was advertised to take place at St. Louis terminated June 29. The highert bidder was Samuel Jones Tilden, of New York, being the most responsible party, financially, represented at the sale, consequently became the possessor of the estate greatly to the disappointment of many other contestants. Whether the $250,000 said to have citizens of the District are now deprived | been paid for it, and a further outlay of two millions, will prove profitable to the purchaser. may not be fully determined until on, or at ou', the 8th day of November. Although it s quite safe to say it will not.

When Andrew Johnson was asked his candid opinion of a man he always gave it unreservedly. When asked before his death what he thought of Governor Hendricks he replied: "He is an old political back, without any positive convictions. Puncture him and there is nothing in him." Mix says, "puncture him and you will prick the rag baby."

General Singleton, with an air of business, strips off the straight-jacket of Democracy which he has so long worn with discomfort to his conscience and injury to his personal appearance, and stands free to say the following: "No one who is an honest man at heart ever wrote the St. Louis platform. It was prepared for the express purpose of deceiving the people. It is a studied deception and fraud, and cannot win."

A suggestion was made yesterday to an ex-Confedercte member of Congress that perhaps in this Centennial year many of the white people of the South, anxious for a unity and pacification of the States, would support Governor Hayes for the Presidency. To this he quickly replied: "When icicles grow ten feet long from the window sashes of h-11, the South will be ready to support a Yankee Brigadier General for the Presidency."

Yesterday about 11 a. m. Boss Kelley, the ammanyite, accompanied by Congressman Elv. of New York, requested and were granted permission by Superintendent Jewell to visit the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The Boss soon discovered that he was not a stranger to the printers, as his ears were frequently greeted by such remarks as "pull down your vest," "where is Boss Tweed!" "how do you like eating crow!" etc. The Boss soon retired in high dudgeon, vowing vengeance against the employees when his friend Tilden becomes President. The last seen of the Boss and his Congressional friend was over at Haggerty's saloon, where the party was putting Bourbon "straights" where they would do the most good.

IN FOREIGN LANDS, } FRIEND SAM: I send you draft on New York for $500,000, which you can use in the canvass something after the system we adopted to beat Dix. The six millions hold out tip-top. I am waiting, dear Sammy, for that happy day when I can return to my native shores and fly to your bosom under the roof of the White House. Did you fix that up with the sheriff? If not, you had better do t soon or he may get miffed and squeal. My general health is hunky. How is your spine now, and do you feel the old shock yet! I feel as if I would make a good Minister to England, provided there is anybody who wants the portfolio of the Treasury more than your humble servant.

WILLIAM TWEED.

The war in Turkey is progressing with but little decided advantage on either side. Since Servia declared war about five thousand of her best soldiery have fallen, and about the same number of Turks have been sacrificed on the field of battle. This does not indicate, however, that it will be a drawn struggle. The Servians are fighting for sound principles, and must eventually triumph. The great danger of this struggle is that the powerful nations which are now watching the struggle with marked jealousy and attention, will gradually be forced into the conflict. That such an event is possible is evident from the fact that the great nations are carefully strengthening their military forces for any emergency which may arise.

There seems to be a general inclination to blame the Indian Department for the guns which aided the Sioux in their terrible slaughter of our brave three hundred. The truth is when the present Commissioner of Indian Affairs came into office, almost the first order he issued was to the effect that no arms should be sold to the Sioux Indians under any circumstances whatever. The order was posi-tive, and the Commissioner used every exertion in his power to carry it out. By those who are well informed it is believed that the oux received their weapons and ammuniti from the settlements in British America and from renegade whites who succeeded in smuggling them into their country. The paper are blaming the President for the death of Custer; therefore we are not surprised that they should attempt to make the Indian Bu reau responsible for the complete equipment of the savage Sioux.

REAT REDUCTION OF BOARD AT THE

CELEBRATED ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.—Owing to the depressed condition of the country the proprietor has determined to lower his charges, that all may be able to derive the benefits from the use of these justly celebrated waters.
They need no recommendation to Washingtonians,
since they have so fully established their efficiency through the thousands who have been brought from death's door to renewed health by the use of their wonderful medicinal waters. Since last summer the Chalybeate Spring, which was opened last year, has been thoroughly analyzed by Frof. M. B. Harden, of the V. M. I., of Virginia, and by comparison shows it to be fully as strong as "Rawley" of carbonate of iron, having a small quantity mere than one and a small quantity less than the other two springs. So in addition to the water that has made these springs so famons, the proprietor takes pleasure in announcing that he can furnish those who may need to drink either separately or in connection with the more celebrated waters of these springs a pure carbonate of iron (chalybeate) water, inferior to none, and equaled only by Rawley, in the State.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS. SCHELLER & PINKARD, TO SMOKERS.

What you want these times is a good Five Cent Cigar. LITTLE ROSE is a new brand of cigars that we have had put up expressly for our retail trade. It is guaranteed tous to be manufactured from selected foreign and domestic leaf. It has no artificial flavor, and we are astisfied that the filler contains a preponderance of Caban tobacco. In introducing this brand our object is to furnish a cigar at 5 cents—five for 25 cents—of delicate flavor, good enough to puff at home. Belleving that no member of the family circle would object to the odor of pure Havana, we commend this cigar in a special manner to gentiemen who wish to enjoy their evening smoke at home, without offense to others. On trial we think you will agree with us. sold only at the LTNCHBURG TOBACCO STORE. No. IIB Seventh street northwest, between L and M. Lynchburg smoking tobacco to clubs at factory prices.

This well-known and popular Summer Resort, on the Maryland side of the Potomac river, sixteen miles below Washington, D. C., and opposite Mount Vernen, is now offered for saire on easy terms, or will trade for city property. The place contains 370 acres of land, in excellent state of cultivation; has it 500 young peach trees, nearly all in bearing; an orchard of over 100 choice varieties of apples; a well-built old-fashioned mansion, with 12 rooms and spacious halls, a large barn and several outbuildings, all in good order, and fitted up in every way for a No. I farm.

The river front is fitted up especially for excarsionists, and is, without exception, the best location for this purpose on the Potomac river. There is an extensive lawn reaching down to the water's edge, numerous shade trees, arbors, booths, patent swings, &c., and a pavillion the largest south of Philadelphia. There is excellent fishing, bathing, and boating at the place, and it is though that a first-class Summer Roarding-house would pay well, as there is nothing of the kind within seventy-five miles.

A public road leads down to the wharf in front of as there is nothing of the kind within sevenly-five miles.

A public road leads down to the wharf in front of the premises, and is the principal, if not the only, outlet toward the river for fruits and produce from farmers in Charles county. The site is a good one for a store, and there is a building on the place admirably adapted for such a purpose.

The steamers Mary Washington and Arrow, from Washington, touch at the wharf on their daily trips downward and upward. The Lady of the Lake, the Jane Mosely, the Thompson, and the two Baitimore boats (the Washington and the Express) stop at regular intervals, and daily excursions are run to the place.
